

Copyright and Privacy Release for material to be published on Te Kete Ipurangi - The Online Learning Centre

Please use the following checklist to signify that the material that you are supplying Te Kete Ipurangi – the Online Learning Centre is released by you for online publication. Please provide the material information, place your initials beside each statement, and complete the details at the bottom of this release.

This release covers the following title and any support materials:

Title
Submitted by Author/s
Creation date
List any support materials

Your Initials

	All graphics, backgrounds, and animations have either been created by us, are copyright free, or we have obtained and retain a copy of the written permission from the artist to use them on TKI.
	We have written all the text ourselves or we have obtained and retain a copy of the written permission from the author to quote the text as part of our online material.
	We have obtained and retain a copy of the written permission from the author to include any professional readings or articles as part of our online material.
	We have obtained and retain a copy of the written release from parents or guardians to use student work or images as part of our online material.
	We have not identified any student by their full name in any part of our online material.
	We have proof read and accept that material that we submit is ready to be published on Te Kete Ipurangi.

We have checked the above title and confirm release by us of all this material for publication on Te Kete Ipurangi.

We understand that the Ministry of Education and The Learning Centre Trust will take no responsibility for any of our material that infringes copyright or privacy laws.

Full Name:

Organisation:

Email:

Telephone:

Signature:

Date:

Received by Te Kete Ipurangi

Date:

Signature: